Developing a Whole School Approach to Ecological Thinking and Faith in Action Online Workshop

Online 2022

If you would like this SAM accredited workshop to count towards your CPF3 Allowance eligibility, you are required to do an assessment. The assessment is:

Apply the learning and resources from previous sessions to develop a plan for embedding ecological thinking and faith in action across your whole school. You may wish to develop a Strategic Plan, Develop a Steering Committee Plan, Create a whole school event or just purely reflect on what you have learnt and some actions that will come out of it. The following principles from previous sessions should be apparent in the development of this learning opportunity:

It provides opportunities for students to develop, express and grow their capabilities.

It provides opportunities for students to express faith in action

It provides opportunities for students to be agents of change and co-construct their learning

1500 word written reflection paper only.

Please note that this reflection paper

- needs to provide evidence of engagement and reflection with some of the significant material from the day, including theological and Catholic studies aspects (i.e. making personal meaning; how content informs professional practice),
- is not a simple recount of the day or its content (e.g. submitting notes from the day would not be acceptable),
- is an original piece of work as a result of the submitter's engagement with this SAM accredited workshop ensuring that standards of professional conduct and academic integrity are honoured.
- Due date: 4 weeks after the PLW/SAM day.

Submit paper to: Alice Dunlop, via Little Earthies website

CESA CPF 3 Requirements (note: CPF 3 Applications close 30 April each year)

CPF Level 3 is payable annually to Teachers who have already received CPF2 and who complete 2 approved accredited Catholic Studies Modules in the previous calendar year.

One module must be a System Accredited Module and the second is usually a School Accredited Module. If two System Accredited Modules are undertaken, with no School Accredited Module, then each assessment task for both System Accredited Modules is required.
